

CFPC ePanel 2018 #1a: Certificates of Added Competence (CACs) –Responses from CAC holders

➔ CAC Holders: 205 invitations, 90 completed surveys, RR=44%

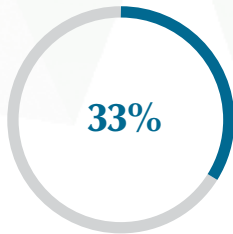

QUESTION 1:

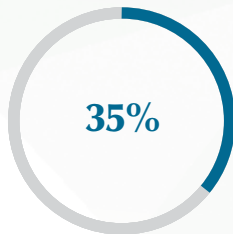

Has your Certificate of Added Competence (CAC) impacted:

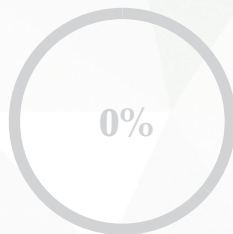

VERY POSITIVELY

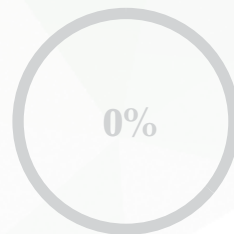

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

NEGATIVELY

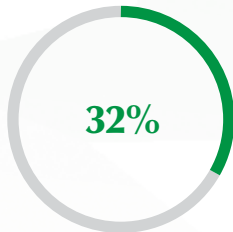

VERY NEGATIVELY

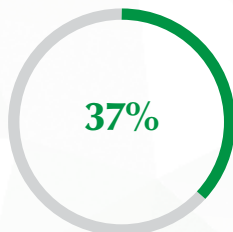

Your role as a resource to your community and patients

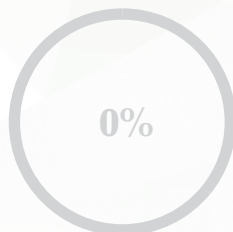

VERY POSITIVELY

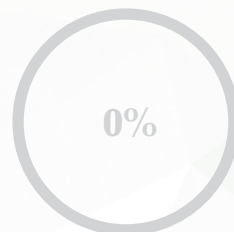

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

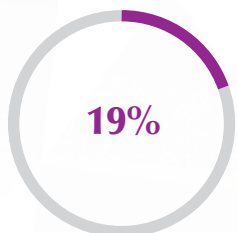

NEGATIVELY

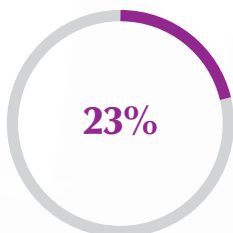

VERY NEGATIVELY

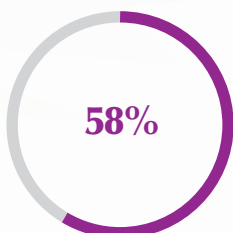

Your role as a consultant and resource to your colleagues

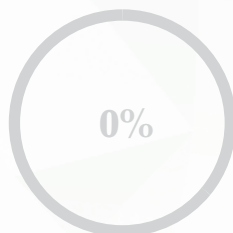

VERY POSITIVELY

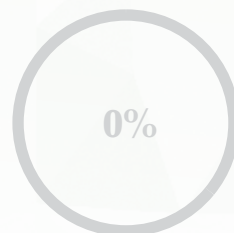

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

NEGATIVELY

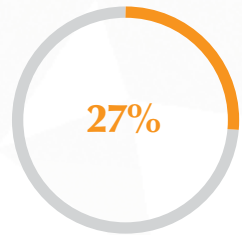

VERY NEGATIVELY

Your day-to-day practice and number of referrals

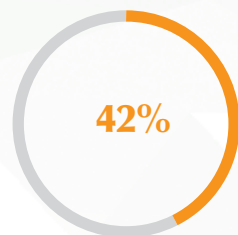

QUESTION 1: (continued)

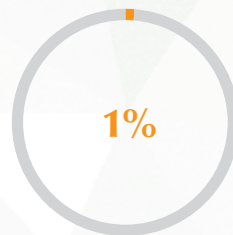

VERY POSITIVELY

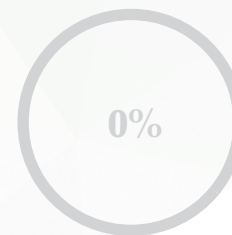

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

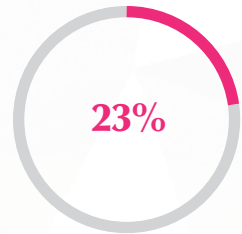

NEGATIVELY

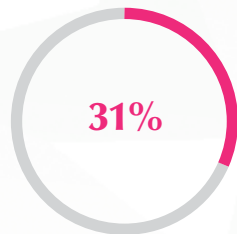

VERY NEGATIVELY

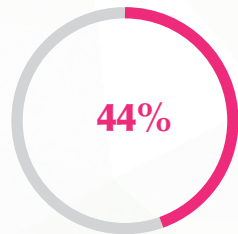

Your interest in being involved or your active involvement in leadership activities in the domain of care, (e.g., education, continuing professional development, administrative roles)

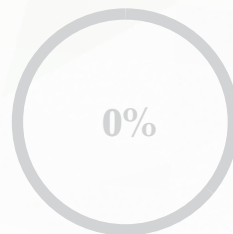

VERY POSITIVELY

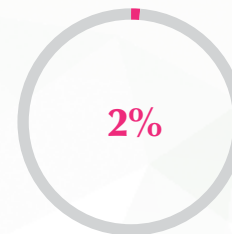

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

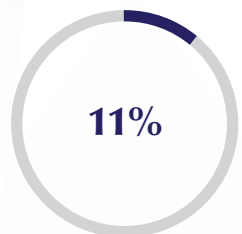

NEGATIVELY

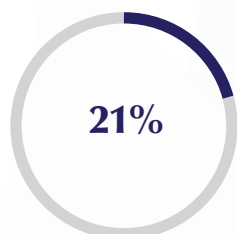

VERY NEGATIVELY

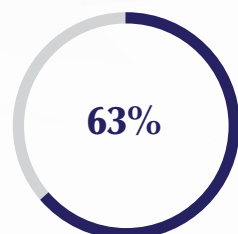

Your job opportunities

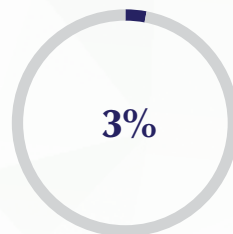

VERY POSITIVELY

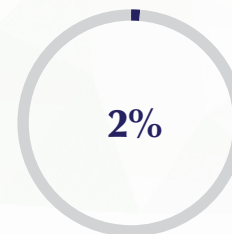

POSITIVELY

NO IMPACT

NEGATIVELY

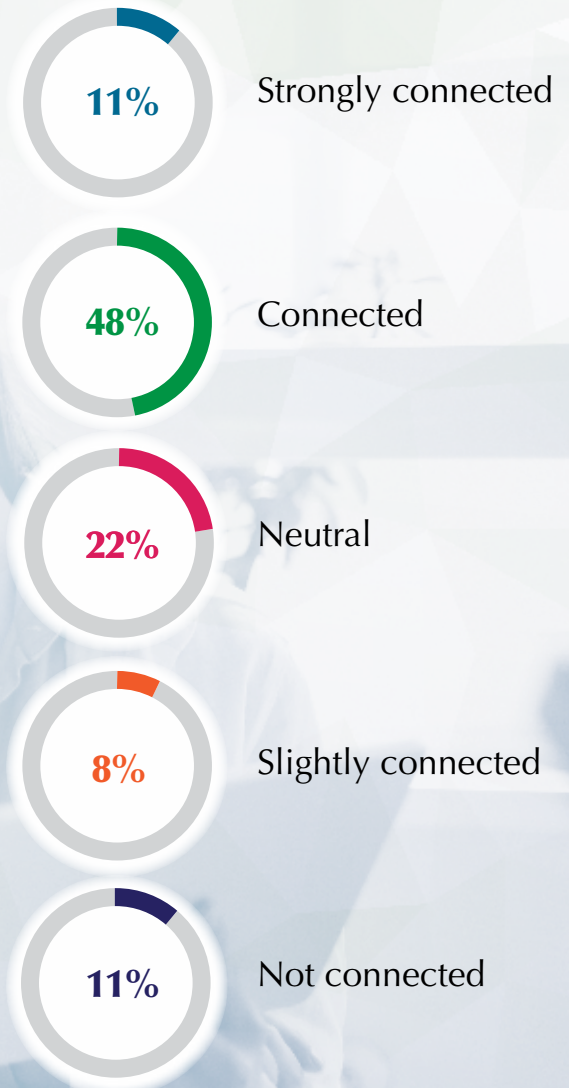

VERY NEGATIVELY

Your income

QUESTION 2:

Do you, as a CAC holder, feel connected to the College of Family Physicians of Canada (CFPC)?

QUESTION 3:

Do you, as a CAC holder, feel supported by the CFPC?

36%
SUPPORTED

33%
NEUTRAL

14%
NOT SUPPORTED

9%
STRONGLY SUPPORTED

8%
SLIGHTLY SUPPORTED

QUESTION 4:

Do you think the College should approve CACs in other domains of practice?

57%

NO

43%

YES

QUESTION 5 :

What is your overall opinion of CACs?

27%

They improve the recognition of skill sets

19%

They have had little impact

18%

They are a positive initiative by the CFPC

8%

They increase the risk of the loss of generalism

7%

They provide opportunities to enhance skills

6%

They increase the risk of credential creep

5%

They recognize a valuable added resource

10%

Other