The CFPC Medicine CEO blog
Canada's Forum Family Medicine
The Alberta College of Family Physicians (ACFP) is pleased to open the Call for Presentations for the 60th ASA. Program planning is Once again, in addition to feature presentations by the Family Medicine Researcher of the Year researchers. Research Day is a perfect opportunity to learn about the work of your research colleagues and to network with other primary care
Topics include:
1. Endocrine Group. Together, the five groups addressed some design issues with the growth charts that had emerged since the charts
2. There were no clear benefits to reducing health care for refugees:
3. There is strong and growing evidence that low-level exposure to common toxicants in our day-to-day environments negatively
4. Endocrine Group. Together, the five groups addressed some design issues with the growth charts that had emerged since the charts
5. There were no clear benefits to reducing health care for refugees:
6. There is strong and growing evidence that low-level exposure to common toxicants in our day-to-day environments negatively
7. Endocrine Group. Together, the five groups addressed some design issues with the growth charts that had emerged since the charts
8. There were no clear benefits to reducing health care for refugees:
9. There is strong and growing evidence that low-level exposure to common toxicants in our day-to-day environments negatively
10. Endocrine Group. Together, the five groups addressed some design issues with the growth charts that had emerged since the charts
11. There were no clear benefits to reducing health care for refugees:
12. There is strong and growing evidence that low-level exposure to common toxicants in our day-to-day environments negatively

For more information, please see the following:

Based on comprehensive needs assessments Targeted for family physicians, specialists, trainees, medical students, nurses, and other health care professionals

Gluten Free: Why the Hype?
Women's Health: Benign Breast Problems
Medical Marijuana: Controversies and Case Studies
Ask an Endocrinologist
Incontinence in Women
Dermatology: Office Management of Skin Cancers

Kathy Lawrence, CFPC President. "We believe that Prevention in Hand will be a quality online resource to provide timely, accurate easily access current and accurate information about the prevention of chronic diseases.

Reduced care would generate higher costs from increased use of emergency departments
Related costs would simply be downloaded to provincial and community health care services

Copyright 2014

Stay current with health news from the CFPC!