TEACHING PROCEDURAL SKILLS

[This bibliography consists of general references on teaching procedural skills at all levels of medical education. Although a few illustrative references on teaching specific procedural skills are included, the bibliography does not provide comprehensive information on teaching specific skills.] Updated 03/2011

2010

2009

2008

2007

2006

2007

2005

2004

2003

Cation LJ, Durning SJ. Procedure skill competence and certification in internal medicine residency training.

2002

2001

2000

Bellamy N; Goldstein LD; Tekanoff RA Continuing Medical Education-Driven Skills Acquisition and Impact on Improved Patient Outcomes in Family Practice Setting J Contin Educ Health Prof 2000;20:52-60

1999

1998

1997

Magill MK. Procedures are (part of) family medicine but family medicine is not procedures. Fam Med. 1997 Sep;29(8):590-2.

1996

1995

1994

1993

Foulkes A. Minor surgery in general practice. BMJ. 1993 Sep 11;307(6905):685

1992

1991

1990

1989

1988

1987

1986

1978 - 1985

Newble DI. The way we teach basic clinical skills. Med Teach 1982 Jan;4:12-4.

