Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of
The College of Family Physicians of Canada

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The College of Family Physicians of Canada (the "College"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at February 28, 2023 and the statement of revenue and expenses, changes in members' equity and cash flows for the 9 months then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the College as at February 28, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the 9 months then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards ("Canadian GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the College in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the College's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the College or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the College's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian GAAS, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the College's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the College's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the College to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Notes to the financial statements

February 28, 2023

---

The College of Family Physicians of Canada (the "College"), founded in 1954, was incorporated in 1960 by Special Act of Parliament and, in 1968, was granted letters patent under the Canada Corporations Act and was continued under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act on June 1, 2014. The College was established to sustain and improve the professional qualifications of members of the medical profession who are engaged in family practice in Canada through education, research, and the publication of journals.

The College is a not-for-profit organization and, accordingly, is exempt from income taxes, provided certain requirements of the Income Tax Act (Canada) are met. The current fiscal year is for a period of nine months from June 1, 2022, to February 28, 2023. This is a transition year as the College has changed its fiscal year from May 31 to February 28/29.

1. Significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of presentation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations published by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, using the deferral method of accounting for restricted contributions.

These financial statements do not include the results of operations and assets and liabilities of each of the provincial chapters of the College (the "Chapters").

(b) Revenue

Membership fees are billed annually to members with the effective date of July 1st as the renewal date. Any new members joining during the year are billed at a pro-rata fee from the date they joined to the next June 30th. A similar approach is followed for Non-Member MainPro+ Participants (NMMPs). Deferred membership fees represent unearned funds received as membership fees. Revenue for Examinations, professional development, Family Medicine Forum and other are recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenses are incurred.

(c) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided on the straight-line basis as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	15 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	3 years
Software	3-8 years
Leasehold improvements	Over term of lease

For the purposes of financial reporting, the accounting treatment for capital assets is as follows: all movable and fixed equipment having a useful life in excess of one year and a unit or grand total cost in excess of $1,000; all leasehold improvements having a useful life in excess of one year and a total cost in excess of $20,000 and software development having a useful life in excess of one year and a cost in excess of $5,000 per project will be capitalized. Equipment costing less than $1,000 is amortized at 100% in the year of acquisition. Capital assets not ready for use are not amortized.

(d) Employee future benefits

The cost of pension benefits earned by employees is actuarially determined using the most recently completed actuarial valuation prepared for funding purposes (but not one prepared using a solvency, wind-up, or similar valuation basis) for measuring its defined benefit plan obligations. A funding valuation is prepared in accordance with pension legislation and regulations, generally to determine required cash contributions to the plan.

The College recognizes:

- the defined benefit obligation, net of the fair value of any plan assets, adjusted for any valuation allowance, in the statement of financial position; and
- the costs of the plans for the period.

(e) Financial instruments

The College's financial assets are comprised of cash, restricted cash, short-term and long-term investments, accounts receivable, and accrued interest receivable. Financial liabilities are comprised of accounts payable and accrued liabilities and funds held for external projects.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognized at fair value when the College becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. Subsequently, all financial instruments are measured at amortized cost, except for equities quoted in active markets, which are carried at fair value. The College has elected to use the fair value option to measure all of its investments. Any subsequent changes in fair value are recorded in the statement of revenue and expenses.

Fair value of investments is determined as follows: fixed income and equity securities are valued at period-end quoted bid prices where available. Where quoted bid prices are not available, estimated fair values are calculated using comparable securities. Transaction costs are expensed as incurred.

(f) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Accounts requiring significant estimates and assumptions include allowance for doubtful accounts, accrued liabilities, deferred revenue, employee future benefits and employee future non-pension benefits, and amortization expense.

2. Restricted cash

Restricted cash includes amounts held in bank accounts and are restricted for eligible expenditures on external projects.

Amounts being held for external projects are as follows:

	February 28, 2023	May 31, 2022
	$	$
Coalition for Physician Learning & Practice Improvement ("CPLPI")	76,782	67,311

Family Medicine National Education Administrators ("FMNEA")	10,995	7,395
	102,619	98,227

3. Long-term investments

Long-term investments consist of the following:

	February 28, 2023		May 31, 2022
	Market value	Cost	Market value	Cost
	$	$	$	$
Fixed income	15,525,583	16,966,404	15,677,398	16,637,334

	30,595,796	30,014,538	30,293,390	24,804,290

The College has investments in bonds and other government secured certificates with varying dates of maturity, as well as investments in equity instruments. These investments yield returns at rates ranging from 0.3% to 6.1% (0.9% to 9.3% in May 31, 2022 per annum).

The College holds securities, which are subject to market risk, interest rate risk, and cash flow risk. These risks will also impact future cash flow streams, including dividends, gains, and losses, and interest income.

The value of equities changes with stock market conditions, which are affected by general economic and market conditions. The value of securities will vary with developments within specific governments and corporations, which issue the security.

The value of fixed income securities will generally increase if interest rates decrease and decrease if interest rates increase. Changes in interest rates may also affect the value of equity securities. The College does not enter into any derivative instrument arrangements for hedging or for speculative purposes.

Further information on the fixed income securities is as set out below:

	February 28, 2023		May 31, 2022
	Market value	Annual yield	Market value	Annual yield

5. Deferred revenue

The College defers revenue in certain cases, as these amounts have been paid in advance of the completion of the particular program, examination, or service to be provided. These amounts will be recorded as revenue when earned. Deferred revenue is comprised of the following:

	February 28, 2023	May 31, 2022
	$	$
Membership fees	8,662,248	2,184,971

6. Employee future benefits and employee future non-pension benefits

The College maintains a pension plan for certain employees, which provides benefits, the greater of a defined benefit or defined contribution plan. The College also offers certain employees other supplemental benefits in a non-funded plan. The defined benefit members approved a transfer of the registered pension plan to the College of Applied Arts and Technology ("CAAT") pension plan. As such, a curtailment has been accounted for, as disclosed below. The following significant actuarial assumptions were employed to determine the periodic pension expense and the accrued benefit obligation:

	Registered pension plan	Supplemental benefits	2023 Future non-pension benefits

11. Contingencies and guarantees

The College is exposed through various programs to possible litigations matters. Although the College is not currently involved in any new litigation, adequate provision has been made for these matters and, accordingly, their ultimate disposition is not expected to have a material effect on its operations or financial position.

The College has provided indemnities under lease agreements for the use of various operating facilities. Under the terms of these agreements, the College agrees to indemnify the counterparties for various items including, but not limited to, all liabilities, loss, suits, and damages arising during, on, or after the term of the agreement. The maximum amount of any potential future payment cannot be reasonably estimated.

Indemnity has been provided to all directors and/or officers, employees, volunteers, or members of any duly constituted committee of the College for various items including, but not limited to, all costs to settle suits or actions due to association with the College, subject to certain restrictions. The College has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance to mitigate the cost of any potential future suits or actions. The term of the indemnification is not explicitly defined, but is limited to the period over which the indemnified party served as a director, officer, employee, volunteer, or member of any committee of the College. The maximum amount of any potential future payment cannot be reasonably determined.

In the normal course of business, the College has entered into agreements that include indemnities in favor of third parties, marketing agreements, confidentiality agreements, engagement letters with advisors and consultants, outsourcing agreements, leasing contracts, information technology agreements, and service agreements. These indemnification agreements may require the College to compensate counterparties for losses incurred by the counterparties as a result of breaches in representation and regulations or as a result of litigation claims or statutory sanctions that may be suffered by the counterparty as a consequence of the transaction. The terms of these indemnities are not explicitly defined and the maximum amount of any potential reimbursement cannot be reasonably estimated.

The nature of these indemnification agreements prevents the College from making a reasonable estimate of the maximum exposure due to the difficulties in assessing the amount of liability, which stems from the unpredictability of future events and the unlimited coverage offered to counterparties.

11. Contingencies and guarantees (continued)

Historically, the College has not made any significant payments under such or similar indemnification agreements, and therefore, no amount has been accrued in the financial statements with respect to these agreements.

12. Related party transactions

The College supports the financial requirements for the salaries and operating costs of The Foundation for Advancing Family Medicine ("FAFM"). The College has a separate and distinct Board of Directors, which makes requests to the FAFM for fundraising for the College's priorities; the FAFM reviews such requests for feasibility before approving and proceeding. The College has an economic interest in the FAFM, as the FAFM raises/solicits funds for various projects undertaken by the College.

The FAFM was established in 1994 and granted letters of patent under the Canada Corporations Act and it was continued under the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act on June 1, 2014. The FAFM mandate is to actively seek sources of funding in order to stimulate and support, at a high level, the science, art, and practice of family medicine. The FAFM is a registered charity organization and, accordingly, is exempt from income taxes, provided certain requirements of the Income Tax Act are met.

During the period ended February 28, 2023, the College contributed $11,500 ($123,000 for the year ended May 31, 2022) towards the Foundation's Awards program costs. In addition, the College incurred a net expense of $1,224,135 ($1,435,498 for the year ended May 31, 2022) for operational, administrative and shared expenses on behalf of the Foundation. Related party transactions are measured at the exchange amount. At February 28, 2023 the College has a receivable balance of $376,045 from FAFM ($302,411 at May 31, 2022).

Allocation of centralized and shared expenses and revenues
