National Curriculum Renewal Priorities

Priority 1: Enhance preparedness and intentions to practice comprehensive, continuity-based family practice anywhere in Canada with a better supported transition into practice.

Priority 2: Optimize scope of training per the Residency Training Profile (including Procedural Skills) published in 2021.

Priority 3: Learn to work sustainably in interprofessional teams, and across different practice environments as part of a commitment to effective practice and professional well-being.

Priority 4: Care for underserved communities by improving exposure to and learning to work with underserved communities as part of a commitment to improved social accountability and health equity.

Priority 5: Build skills to address existing gaps, and enhance skills in areas of priority social need including:

- Home and long-term care
- Addiction and mental health
- Emergency/acute care medicine
- Indigenous health
- Health equity and anti-racism
- Virtual care and health informatics
