

Dr. Pádraig Casey, MB BCh BAO, MMed, CCFP

CFPC Family Physician of the Year, PEI (2023)

Qualifications

- Masters in Medical Education (MMed), University of Dundee, 2026
- PBSGL Accredited Group Lead Trainer, 2022
- Masters Certificate in Physician Leadership, Schulich Executive Business School, 2021
- Certification in the College of Family Physicians of Canada, 2018
- MICGP, 2015
- Certificate of Completion of Basic Specialist Training (General Internal Medicine), RCPI, 2009–2011
- MB BAO BCh (Hons), Trinity College Dublin, 2008

Family Medicine Experience

- Comprehensive Rural Family Physician and Patient Medical Home Lead, Cornwall, PEI (2017–present)
- General Practitioner, Ireland (2015–2017)

Academic Appointments

- Assistant Professor, Family Medicine, Dalhousie University
- Assistant Professor, Family Medicine, Memorial University of Newfoundland
- Clinical Tutor, Trinity College Dublin (2014–2015)

Leadership & Administrative Roles

- Site Director, Dalhousie Family Medicine on PEI (2022–present)
- Acting Medical Director of Medical Education, PEI (2022–2023)
- Faculty Development Coordinator, Dalhousie Residency Program PEI Site (2021–2024)
- MSPEI President (2021)
- Board Member, MSPEI (2020–present)
- Chair & Author, Guidance Document for Implementation of Team-Based Primary Care on PEI (2020)
- Committee Member, PEI Point-of-Care Committee (2018–2023)
- Committee Member, Medical Staff Bylaws Review Project (2020–2022)
- Chief resident RCSI GP training program 2014

Research, Grants & Scholarly Work

Grants

- Living Lab Research Grant, Dalhousie University (2024)
- Health Research Board Student scholarship (2007)

Current / Recent Projects

- The Supervision of Family Medicine Residents: In Search of Goldilocks (Completed Masters research project; dissemination articles in progress)
- Lead-investigator - Exploring Social Accountability in Medical Education Through Photographic Portraiture and Reflection (in progress, REB submitted)

- Lead-investigator - Development and Validation of Vignettes for Faculty Development in Family Medicine Education (REB approved, in progress)
- Lead-investigator - Impact of Preceptor Teaching Approaches on Resident Training Outcomes: Building a Conceptual Model for Prioritization of Learner Competency versus Independence (REB submitted)
- Small Group CME for Family Physicians on PEI: Vision, Plan, and Business Case (Ongoing advocacy and seeking funding)

Peer-Reviewed Publications

- Casey, P., Corvin, A. The Clinical Impact of Substance Use in Schizophrenia: A Study in an Irish Population. Trinity Student Medical Journal, 2008
<https://www.tsmj.ie/index.php/tsmj/article/view/1883>
- Rural medical education as a solution to rural physician shortages: an exploration of the motivations and engagement of rural physician-educators in Prince Edward Island, Canada. Rural and Remote Health, 2023 (Abstract)
- The supervision of family medicine residents: A qualitative study. Masters Dissertation, University of Dundee, 2026

Presentations & Conference Activities

- Resident Supervision: In search of Goldilocks. ICAM 2026 oral presentation
- Family Medicine Program Updates. QEH Grand Rounds (2023, 2024, 2025)
- Supervision in Family Medicine. Poster Presentation, CFPC PEI Chapter Annual Conference (2024)
- Resident supervision – are you a “helicopter preceptor” or a “sink-or-swim” coach? Mini Rural and Remote conference, Charlottetown, 2024
- Medical Education in PEI — WONCA Rural Conference, Limerick, Ireland (2022)
- Family Physicians and Nurse Practitioners Working Together for Patients — Poster Presentation, Master Certificate in Physician Leadership (2021)
- Dalhousie Faculty Development Weekend: Teaching Consultation Skills to Residents (2021)
- PEI Faculty Development Events (Organizer & Presenter): 2021–2026
- Founder – inaugural PEI Medical Education symposium (2025)

Teaching Experience

Clinical Teaching and supervision:

- 20-25 Residents & Medical Students, Dalhousie and MUN (2018–present)
- Interprofessional education – NP students, RN students (2020-present)
- Clinical Tutor, Trinity College Dublin (2014–2015)
- Voluntary tutor – Trinity Access Program (2000-2002)

Classroom & Faculty Development Teaching:

- Curriculum sessions for family medicine residents (2–3 per year)
- Teaching advanced communication & consultation skills to residents and faculty (2021-present)
- PBSGL Training Session for New Group Leaders (2023)
- Small group tutorial instructor, Trinity College Medical School (2014–2015)

Educational Innovation & Program Development

- Spearheaded expansion of the residency program on PEI from 5 to 9 residents per year
- Developed rural teaching sites across PEI as core placements for residents
- Secured 4 new housing units to accommodate Dalhousie Residents and Medical students on PEI
- Developed new hospitalist medicine teaching block on PEI leading to the recruitment of more than 12 new Dalhousie Faculty
- Spearheaded securing $2M in funding for new medical education space at QEH
- Established new IT and communication strategies for Dalhousie Family Medicine on PEI
- Established relationships with UPEI Faculty of Medicine to enable Dalhousie residents use of new resources i.e., world class Sim labs.

Awards & Distinctions

- Family Physician of the Year – Reg L. Perkins Awards, PEI (2023)
- Health Research Board Scholarship Winner (2008)
- Winner, RCSI Best Quality Initiative (2015)
- Trinity College Dublin Entrance Exhibition Awards for academic achievement (2000)
- Student of the Year (1997, 1998) — Coláiste Rís, Dundalk