

Leading family medicine. Improving lives.

Representing more than 42,000 members across the country, the College of Family Physicians of Canada™ (CFPC) is the professional organization that establishes the standards for and accredits postgraduate family medicine training in Canada's 17 medical schools. It reviews and certifies continuing professional development programs and materials that enable family physicians to meet certification and licensing requirements. The CFPC provides high-quality services, supports family medicine teaching and research, and advocates on behalf of the specialty of family medicine, family physicians, and the patients they serve.

The CFPC is seeking a dynamic individual to lead our Professional Development and Practice Support Division. Join our executive team as,

Executive Director Professional Development and Practice Support

Reporting to the CEO, the Executive Director, Professional Development and Practice Support is responsible for overseeing and enhancing the provision of professional development and practice support services to members and other audiences. This includes oversight of our continuing professional development (CPD) credit tracking and activity, certification services, as well as the production of CPD activities, programs, clinical practice guidelines, and practice tools. The incumbent also participates fully in the life and responsibilities of the Executive Team of the CFPC.

The successful candidate will have: experience in a leadership role pertaining to health professional education and learning; a thorough knowledge of the diverse practice settings and working styles of family physicians within the Canadian health care system; a proven capacity to collaborate and cooperate with dynamic leadership teams, committees, and external groups; expert interpersonal and management skills; and a strong understanding of education, pedagogy, and adult learning theory.

A family physician with CCFP designation is required with bilingualism (English/French) strongly preferred.
