Learn

Dr. Robert Woollard will deliver the 2019 Ian McWhinney Keynote Address. Dr. Woollard is a professor in the Department of Family Practice at the University of British Columbia and an expert in the development of ecosystem approaches to health care. His work has taken him all over the world to places such as East Africa, Nepal, and Vietnam. Leave inspired and ready to engage in global advancement in the medical sphere!

Wednesday, October 30th: 08:00–09:30
VCC Ballroom B

Collaborate

Attend the Shaping the Family Physician of Tomorrow: Outcomes of Training Project large group session (W320) to connect with colleagues, participate in an inquiry-based approach, and discuss implications, challenges, and solutions for the future of family medical education.

Wednesday, October 30: 10:00–12:15
VCC, Room 211-214

Share

The Teachers and Preceptors Knowledge Café and Lunch is back! This year it features facilitated table discussions on topics ranging from teaching culturally safe care to Choosing Wisely. Browse the menu, select a tasty topic, and join us!

Wednesday, October 30: 12:15–13:30
VCC Room 211-214

Reflect

Peer Consultations for Teachers, Preceptors, and Leaders (W454) is a session that provides a collegial setting for exploring teaching challenges and brainstorming new approaches.

Don't have a problem? Learn about the peer consultation framework and assess its relevancy to your educational setting.

Wednesday, October 30: 15:00–16:00
VCC Room 211-214

Aspire

Join leaders from the College at the Fireside Chat (W463) for a free-flowing conversation on the challenges facing family medicine teachers, preceptors, and academic leaders that contribute to burnout.

Wednesday, October 30: 16:15–17:15
VCC Room 211-214

Connect

Interested in working with learners? Attend the Teachers and Preceptors Town Hall. Take advantage of this chance to mix and mingle and bring a fellow colleague, a former preceptor or learner!

Friday, November 1: 12:15–13:30
VCC, Room 220-222
