MIGS Project Support Scoring Criteria

Criterion	0 points	1 point	2 points
Alignment with the CFPC strategic goals: • Advance family medicine through standard setting, education across the continuum, and practice improvement • Be the clear, unified voice of family medicine and family physicians	The project does not align with one or more of the strategic goals of the CFPC. • Does not promote continuity and comprehensiveness of care by FPs • Does not support FPs in adapting their competence in areas required by their patients and communities • Does not promote the unique contributions that FPs make to the health of all people in Canada	The project loosely aligns with one or more of the strategic goals of the CFPC. • Promotes continuity and comprehensiveness of care by FPs • Supports FPs in adapting their competence in areas required by their patients and communities • Promotes the unique contributions that FPs make to the health of all people in Canada	The project strongly aligns with one or more of the strategic goals of the CFPC. • Promotes continuity and comprehensiveness of care by FPs • Supports FPs in adapting their competence in areas required by their patients and communities • Promotes the unique contributions that FPs make to the health of all people in Canada
Alignment with MIGS focus areas: Practice Support Policy and Advocacy Education and Training	The project does not align with one of the focus areas of the MIGS Strategic Plan.	The project loosely aligns with one of the focus areas of the MIGS Strategic Plan.	The project strongly aligns with one of the focus areas of the MIGS Strategic Plan.
Relevance to a specific Member Interest Group and advancement of the field.	The project is not relevant to the Member Interest Group identified. It will not generate new knowledge or provide practice support to move the discipline forward.	The project is relevant to the Member Interest Group identified. It will generate some new knowledge or provide practice support to move the discipline forward.	The project is relevant to the Member Interest Group identified. It addresses a gap in the field and will generate new knowledge or provide practice support to move the discipline forward.
Impact on patient experience/quality of care	The project will not positively impact patient experience or quality of care.	The project will somewhat positively impact patient experience or quality of care.	The project will have a strong positive impact on patient experience or quality of care.

Deliverables (I)	The deliverables are not clearly stated.	The deliverables are somewhat clearly stated.	The deliverables are clearly stated.
Deliverables (II)	The listed deliverables are not attainable or realistic.	The listed deliverables may be attainable and realistic.	The listed deliverables are attainable and realistic.
Reach	Only a small cohort of family physicians in the field will benefit from the deliverables, and/or some family physicians may be negatively impacted.	A fair amount of family physicians in the field will benefit and not be negatively impacted by the deliverables.	Many family physicians in the field will benefit and not be negatively impacted by the deliverables.
One-year timeframe	The project cannot realistically be completed in one-year.	They project may be completed in one-year.	It is very likely that the project will be completed in one-year.
 Social justice lens applied Social justice is the pursuit and/or attainment of equity in society It focuses on addressing the SDH and minimizing their negative effects on someone's health 	The project does not account for social justice and equity at the micro, meso, and/or macro level.	The project somewhat accounts for social justice and equity at the micro, meso, and/or macro level.	The project addresses social justice and equity at the micro, meso, and/or macro level.
Budget	The proposed budget is not detailed. Items listed are not eligible for funding: • physician compensation beyond the honorarium maximum of $500). • travel/registration for a conference	The proposed budget needs further clarification.	The proposed budget is reasonable.
	/20		