

Dear Community Members,

You are receiving this newsletter because you've indicated dermatology as a community of practice with which you identify. The College of Family Physicians of Canada's (CFPC's) Dermatology Community of Practice in Family Medicine (CPFM) Committee is a national committee for family physicians with a strong interest in dermatology. Our mission is to support the role family physicians play in the front-line management of skin disease by facilitating educational and networking opportunities. We're pleased to share the following information about our activities, and we welcome your involvement.

Family Medicine Forum (FMF)

- We will be hosting a half-day of continuing professional development (CPD) at FMF at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre during November 11-14, 2015; please see the FMF scientific program for further details in September (<http://fmf.cfpc.ca/program/>)
- Topics will include acne, pediatric dermatology, new drugs in dermatology, Actinic Keratosis, and Dermoscopy

CPD events of interest

- September 26, 2015: Clinical Update for Family Physicians Practicing in Dermatology, Toronto, ON
- February 11 – 14, 2016: South Beach Symposium, Fontainebleu Hotel, Miami Beach, FL
- May 25 – 29, 2016: Key West Derm, Casa Marina Resort, Key West, FL
